Extinction of Religion

There are sounds of heathenism roaming throughout the land. Generally, people are accepting the humanist approach to life, which disavows the existence of God. This philosophy supports abortion, euthanasia, suicide, situation ethics, and numerous other doctrines that degrade humanity to the level of an animal.

In a recent Fox News report, the mass media giant reported that religion is becoming extinct in parts of the world with the possibility of religion becoming extinct in America. Religion is a subject that conveys different ideas. It is defined as Belief in and reverence for God or some supernatural power that is recognized as the creator and ruler of the universe; an organized system of doctrine with an approved pattern of behavior and a proper form of worship (Nelson's Illustrated Bible Dictionary).

Religion can be laden with error or it can be built on truth. The only way to have truth is to follow the pattern that is set forth in Holy Writ, the Bible. The report from Fox News documents the shift in society from being God believers to humanists' beliefs that has been rolling over the land for the past fifty years. In the report they said, "In 2008 those claiming no religion rose to 15 percent nationwide, with a maximum in Vermont at 34 percent" ("Study").

Will religion become extinct in America? The answer to that question is beyond the ability of this writer to answer. The answer belongs to God; He is in charge of the world. Our society has become very immoral and has been turning from God at an epidemic rate. Yet, there is hope. God is in control and He will always have His faithful followers. It is the responsibility of each of us to be faithful to Him in all things. It is written, "Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful" (Heb. 10:23).

A better question to ask is, "Will religion become extinct in my heart?" This is something I have control over. The best way to answer it is to quote Scriptures.

"And if it seems evil to you to serve the Lord, choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord" (Josh. 24:15).
